INTENDED ALTERATION IN LIGHTS.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on or about the 1st JULY next a GAS-LIGHT SHIP will be MOORED OFF Drinkwater Point.
The Lightship, which will be known as the Drinkwater Point Gas-light ship, will be a steel vessel 80 feet in length and 23 feet beam, painted red and bearing the words 'Drinkwater Point' on her sides in White Letters, and will be moored about 3 miles N. 32° W. of the Drinkwater Point Gas-buoy.
The Lightship, which will be exhibited from a lantern carried by an iron column, will be Dioptric, Occulting, of the 4th Order, showing a Fixed White Light varied by an eclipse every 10 seconds, thus: Light 5 seconds, Eclipse 5 seconds.
The centre of the light will be 35 feet above the water and the light should be visible in clear weather at a distance of 11 nautical miles.
During foggy or thick weather a fog Bell will be struck one blow every 15 seconds. If the Lightship be driven from her station the usual Light will not be shown, but a fixed Red Light will be exhibited at each end of the vessel during the night, and a Red Flag hoisted by day.
On the night when the light on the Drinkwater Point Gas-light ship is first exhibited, the Drinkwater Point Light and the Drinkwater Point Gas-buoy will be discontinued.

'TANSAN' SAVOY,

PURE. Equivocal in Flavor, Stimulating without Reaction, this life-giving, Natural Mineral Water gushes out of the mountain-side at Takaradaka, near Kobe, Japan.

PURITY. Its source is amid hard volcanic rock, beyond reach of contact with any human being, and it is conveyed by gravity through a rock-hewn tunnel and concrete aqueduct to a sheltered enclosure, where, without pumping, bottling, or touch of human hand, it is placed in machinery in sterilized bottles and packed in cases for shipment; thus, from its initial source protecting the water against possible contamination of any kind. Forcibly through several strata of virgin rock, it is saturated with their unaltered mineral properties, and no chemical skill can duplicate the living Tansan any more than the laboratory can create a living tree.

FLAVOR. Tansan gladdens the palate with a most peculiar to itself, clean, crisp, novel, and delicious. Its appetizing taste smacks of satisfaction, without any of the feeling of fullness, however freely indulged in.

TANSAN is Nature's own distillation, and because of its absolute purity it blends with spirits, wines, stout, milk, and other liquors without altering the natural flavor, except to enliven it.

STIMULUS. Tansan is refreshing, and, by reason of its active qualities, it excites the appetite and stimulates the nutritive functions. It is persistently regulative without being laxative, and it eliminates from the problem of life the elements attributable to the liver and kidneys.

The supply is inexhaustible, being an even flow, entirely independent of surface conditions of a wet or dry season, and there will never be necessity for any of the artificial manufacture of Tansan, so that it will be forever free from the obnoxious taste peculiar to all salted and fabricated waters. Visitors to the Spring find the entire plant open to inspection—there is nothing to conceal.

TANSAN conduces to vigorous health. It is a Tansan only from a Restorative. DRINK TANSAN.

TO SMOKERS.

It is a well-known fact, admitted by the EGYPTIAN CIGARETTE MANUFACTURERS themselves, that Cigarettes imported from Egypt are made from TURKISH TOBACCO, which is subject to a heavy Import Duty in Egypt. Hongkong being a Free Port tobacco can be imported free of duty.

Two Good Reasons why it is advantageous to Smoke Egyptian Cigarettes.

1.—Cheapness of my Cigarettes compared to imported cigarettes, owing to tobacco being admitted duty-free into Hongkong, and that you are buying direct from the Manufacturer, doing away with middlemen's profits.

2.—Freshness of my Cigarettes, as they are made daily for each day's consumption, which makes it impossible to have an old stock of Cigarettes, as is very likely with Imported Cigarettes.

The following is a list of my Cigarettes made from the Best Turkish Tobacco at from 40% to 60% cheaper than imported cigarettes of equal quality.

NAME	SIZE	PACKED IN BOXES OF	PRICE PER 100

BRITAIN AND HER COLONIES.

LORD ELGIN was well advised to discuss at some length at the annual dinner of the Colonial Institute the question of the extent to which interference with the self governing colonies by Downing St. was wise or desirable. His conciliatory speech will soothe the offended colonists who were driven by Mr Winston Churchill's overbearing attitude towards the Natal Government to talk rather ominously of "cutting the painter" and will ally the plain which was naturally felt lest the discredited policy which occasioned the loss of what is now the United States to England should be re-adopted. The view that Lord Elgin takes, and it coincides with that taken by most people who have given a thought to the subject, is that the Colonies should be left as much as possible to themselves. In the case of Crown Colonies the administration is, as a rule, entrusted to a man who by training and natural ability is qualified for the task. The Governors in the self governing colonies have of course nothing like so much responsibility, as they get by the advice of their advisers and it has been shown within the last few years, notably in connection with a difference of opinion which rose between the Governor of New Zealand and the local Ministry, that it is well for the Governor to refrain from having any opinion of his own except in regard to Imperial matters. The colonists, of the bulk of them at all events, are either British or of British descent and they cherish the British traditions just as dearly as the Britisher who stays at home. Generally speaking the Home Government may rest assured that every question that arises in any of her Colonies—more especially those which concern the relations between the colonists and the inferior races—is invariably dealt with generously and honorably and straightforwardly. Obviously the colonists, in such matters as these, must from their local knowledge, understand better how to deal with the problems than the well-meaning people who stay at home and let their newspapers and their pet politicians form opinions for them. The soft answer has come in good time from Lord Elgin and the wrath that Natal was undoubtedly feeling has happily for everyone been turned away. The colonists will carry on the operations against the rebellious natives with much greater confidence now that the Secretary of State for the Colonies has made the amende honorable and all danger of outside interference has disappeared.

In the Yokohama District Court on May 23rd judgment was rendered in the civil case of Sibers, Wolff & Co. v. Messrs Butterfield & Swire, where the plaintiffs claimed the payment of Yen 1,541.80 for short delivery of cargo. The case was dismissed with costs.

INDIA'S OPIUM TRADE.

The total value of the opium exported from India in 1904-5 was £7,982,995, of which opium to the value of £5,541,040 was consigned direct to ports in China. The net opium revenue of India in the same year amounted to £4,080,999. This included revenue from opium consumed in India or consigned to other than ports in China. The portion of the revenue derived from opium exported direct to China is estimated at about £5,000,000.

RHEUMATISM.

WHY suffer from this painful malady when you can get relief from Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is the best remedy for rheumatism, and no case has yet been reported where it has failed to give relief, and it has been in general use for more than a quarter of a century. For sale by all chemists and druggists.

Some controversy has been raging through the pages of the Nation, an excellent literary paper, published at New York, in reference to the meaning of the word "beachcomber." The lady who wrote "Vikings of the Pacific" uses the expression to describe a wave. The Nation, in reviewing the book, took exception to this and held that the word could only properly be applied to those unsavoury looking derelicts who anchor themselves in the vicinity of hotels and endeavour to induce the wherewithal for beer out of passers by. It has been shown, however, that the Standard dictionary defines beachcomber as "1. (U.S.) A long wave rolling up on the beach. 2. An idle or vicious vagrant about wharves and beaches at seaports." There is little need to get excited about the matter anyway. If an author finds the word beachcomber fittingly describes the manner in which the long rollers curve and break upon the white sands of the islands of the Pacific she is at perfect liberty to use it. And if the supply runs short Hongkong would no doubt be glad, without fee or reward, to hand over all of the genus beachcomber which decorates this favoured isle. Let the beachcombers, large or short, roll up any beach they like, so long as it is a few hundred or thousand miles away from the Colony.

Some days ago we reported that a tea-party, arranged by the Nam Hoi Magistrate, had been given to the Editors of the more respectable Canton newspapers. No doubt the tea was good, the etiquette impeccable, and the conversation, as is not infrequently the case, on such occasions, stilled enough. This week, the tea-party notwithstanding, an indictment has been published in a very piquant form, against the attitude of the mandarins who have lately tried to intimidate Editors. There is a reference to the sternness of the Viceroy of the Hupai Province, who imprisoned the Editor of the Cho newspaper a year ago, and still holds him under lock and key. The shutting up of the office of the Aziz in Canton is referred to, as well as the firing of the Editors of the Shi Man and Yung Shing papers respectively. The former of these offered some caustic criticism on official conduct, in which truth was said to be blended with falsehood; the latter used the scissors, and involved himself. In addition to these, the On Ngo has incurred official wrath, on account of an advertisement, which apparently was not palatable to official taste. So it appears that in Canton alone not less than four Editors have exposed themselves to the official lash, and this has been vigorously applied. The Editor of the Pictorial Times, however, has had his revenge, and has issued a cartoon which represents a young Chinese, in European garb, with a sheaf of newspapers at his feet, chanting his complaint which is called "The Song of the South." The dirge is composed in semi-colloquial, and bitterly to the cadences bewail the woes of those who are the would-be Saviours and Regenerators of China, "Where, indeed, is freedom? Cruelly there is, and the man who speaks lets loose the dogs of war, though he be but a single voice. Unless one happens to have been born in Europe or America improvement cannot be hoped for nor attempted! No regulations for the guidance of the Press have been promulgated as in civilized countries, which can be obeyed, and so we are unable to inform and guide the intelligence of the people." This "Song of the South" will no doubt be found just as unpalatable to official readers, as the satire of Thackeray and Baron were to those who were unfortunate enough to rouse their ire.

An Editor's Troubles.

Mr C. D. Melbourne reviewed his decision, at the Magistracy, this morning, in the case in which the Editor of the World's News was committed for trial on a charge of criminal libel. The defendant elected to be summarily dealt with and was ordered to pay a fine of $250.

A Bangkok Industry.

The Siam Observer says that Messrs Howarth & Sons, Ltd., are greatly extending their premises in Bangkok, especially as regards their foundry, which looks as if it would soon become the biggest in the Far East. They have just now an enormous lot of work on hand there, and are putting up some big steel workshops at the Navy Yard. They are also putting up a shipway at the Crown Prince's Palace at Dusit Park, constructing a lot of lighters, and making a lot of rice milling machinery and glider work for various public constructions.

A Nasty Woman.

While a Chinese prisoner was being tried in the small Court, at the Magistracy yesterday, an old woman clamoured for admittance to the Court and having forced her way in she declared she owed her. A constable proceeded to remove her and she protested in such a noisy manner as to completely suspend business in both Courts for a few minutes. Charged with making a disturbance, before Mr F. A. Hazeland this morning, she denied that such was the case. Inspector Warnock however explained the apparent falsehood by stating that the woman was from the country and was so much in the habit of talking loudly that she did not know when she was making a noise. Defendant had no money and no friends and was discharged on promising never to come near the Court again.

WHOOPIING COUGH.

THIS is a very dangerous disease unless properly treated. Statistics show that there are more deaths from it than from smallpox. All danger may be avoided, however, by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It liquefies the tough mucus, making it easier to expectorate, keeps the cough loose and makes the paroxysms of coughing less frequent and less severe. It has been used in many epidemics of this disease with perfect success. For sale by all chemists and druggists.

LOCAL AND COAST NEWS.

Several shocks of earthquake were felt at Siala on May 20 and 21. On the evening of May 21 there were three sudden shocks the whole disturbance lasting for about one minute.

There were 334 European and 154 Chinese visitors to the City Hall Library, and 92 European and 2,617 Chinese visitors to the Museum during the week ending June 3rd (excluding Whit-Monday).

Owing to the fowness of the tickets disposed of the extra performance of "His Excellency the Governor" by the Singapore Amateur Company had to be cancelled. Singapore is less enthusiastic than Hongkong.

All old residents in the East will hear with regret that Mr John Walter has resigned his seat on the London Committee of the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation. He serves a connection with the Bank that has existed for nearly forty years.

The Japan Government intends to spend Yen 11,078,607 upon the improvement of existing railways in Japan proper during the course of the next four years, and Yen 79,014,105 on construction during the ten-year period, from 1906 to 1915. The Treasury intend to obtain the money by floating public works bonds.

The Board of Constabulary have captured two "bad characters" who were posting anti-foreign placards in some of the streets of the Outer City. The President of the Board tried the men, but it is not said that they were punished at all. The Board has issued a characteristically worded proclamation "persuading the people" not to listen to unfounded rumour, and "strongly advising" them to disperse, on pain of punishment.

Three of the crew of the "Minnesota" were convicted, at the Magistracy this morning, of stealing from the steamer. The first man was caught stealing six jars of sugar, a jar of cooking wine and a jar of oil and the other two with stealing nine drums of paint oil. Captain Rinder said that he had had a great deal of trouble owing to the numerous thefts from the ship. The defendants were each sentenced to two months' imprisonment with six hours in the stocks.

Several coolies were summoned, at the Magistracy this morning, for neglecting to have their coolie books registered. Inspector Langley stated that the trouble was that a new regulation had been introduced limiting the number of coolies to be carried on boats of different sizes. There had been several fatalities through overcrowding. The defendants did not wish to pay the fee for the licence to see but wanted to delay taking out the licence as long as possible so that the new regulations would not apply. They were cautioned and ordered to take out licence at once.

FESTIVITIES IN SPAIN.

REVIEW NEAR MADRID.

Their Majesties' Reception. (Exclusive Service, supplied by Reuters, via Bombay.)

London, June 5.

Their Majesties the King and Queen of Spain attended a review of 20,000 troops at Carabanchel, near Madrid.

They received a great ovation along the route, being cheered all the way.

The street scene rivalled Epsom Road on Derby Day.

[Reuters's service.]

A Bull Fight.

The bull fight was the climax of the festivities. Their Majesties left after seven bulls had been despatched. All the Royalties, including the Battenbergs, were present, but the Prince and Princess of Wales and the British Diplomats were absent.

THE MADRID OUTRAGE.

The Assailant Dead.

London, June 4. An anarchist named Mateo Moral, who was arrested at a village near Madrid, has been identified as the thrower of the bomb at the royal wedding.

Mateo shot the policeman who arrested him and then committed suicide.

Account of His Death.

Mateo Moral was aged 28, the son of a wealthy merchant in Madrid; he was educated in Germany and was an avowed anarchist. The arrest was made at Torrejon, 15 miles from Madrid. The state of his boots and clothes indicated that he had been tramp for days, and he was taken to a hospital in reference to the train service to Barcelona. These enquiries, coupled with his appearance, aroused suspicion, and a policeman was fetched, upon which Moral started for a village a mile and a half distant, without demurring shooting the policeman dead by the roadside.

He then started across country, but the report of firearms had brought a party of villagers in pursuit of him, and finding that he could not escape, he shot himself in the heart.

The occupants of the house from which the bomb was thrown, have since identified the body.

THE CHINESE CUSTOMS.

China's Aspirations.

London, June 4. China has sent the British Legation written assurance that it is not proposed to charge the present status of the Customs.

NEW JAPANESE BATTLE-SHIPS.

London, June 4. The crews of the Tokitsuki and the Katori have been despatched by the navy at Portsmouth.

LONDON LETTER.

(From Our Correspondent.)

London, May 4.
The new Government have offered such drastic legislation that it was with decided relief that we learned that the budget, at all events, was to be almost innocuous. Slight reductions in parcels post charges, 2½d of the three pence that Mr. A. Chamberlain put on stripped tobacco, a penny off tea and the abolition of the shilling export duty on coal, made up the sum of the radical reforms of the tariff. Nothing is done for the atrocious income tax or for sugar, which is a raw material for many trades. The tea penny is not sufficient to reach the small consumer who buys tea by the quarter pound or even the ounce. Grocers will not recognise farthings so that the benefit will stop at the retailer. The coal remission will be to the advantage of a few pits which yield the worst description of coal. Cardiff anthracite, as the only known smokeless coal, would always sell abroad, and the foreigner would cheerfully pay the extra shilling but with cheap coals, worth only six shillings at the pit mouth, the shilling duty was the deciding factor as to whether he would buy the Welsh or the Westphalian article. It is an unexciting budget, and one that makes changes only in favour of certain limited classes of the community. We may buy tea of a little better quality, but otherwise the man in the street is not benefited one iota by the surplus that Mr. Austen Chamberlain left and the economist that Mr. Asquith promises.

Late on Wednesday evening an extraordinary canard was circulated in London to the effect that our King was lying seriously ill in Paris. There was not the slightest ground for it. Yesterday His Majesty met a number of distinguished guests at the Embassy, and will be back here to-morrow or Monday, more probably the latter.

The present majority in the Commons is enormous but is decidedly heterogeneous, and will drop to pieces in a fortnight over the Education Bill. The Irish party are to join the Opposition and I shall be surprised if the Labour members do not also resist the Government Bill. The Government's majority in their house the less that it was won by—terminological inaccuracies—but it is made up of items that cannot coalesce, and the scheme to impose Bismarck on the schools will be the solvent that will separate them.

The Bible Society have refused their powerful help to the production of a translation of the Sacred Scriptures (in Sanskrit Bible) into Esperanto. They argue that there is no action that speaks that tongue. Here they are clearly mistaken. All Europe speaks it. The other day, at a Labour congress in London a foreigner addressed the meeting in the international language, and a British Evangelist interpreted for him, being entirely ignorant of the only other language that the orator could speak. Many of the Bible Society's supporters are also missionary preachers to whom such a language as Esperanto would be a boon, and there is no doubt that it is being far more widely used than the barbarous and clumsy Volapuk of twenty years ago.

On Tuesday, June 12th, the King will be present at the ceremonial opening of the chapel of the Order of St. Michael and St. George in St. Paul's Cathedral. This peculiarly colonial order of knighthood has waited long for its due recognition and the inscription to it of the Wellington chapel will be an occasion for congratulation to the knights who have as yet no place where three banners may hang in token of distinction quite as hardly won as any of the other chivalric decorations that have survived to this utilitarian age.

While the Coliseum is in very low water (there were thirteen people in the stalls the other evening), the most crowded place of amusement this week has been the sale room of the Times Book Club. The methods of this institution may be American, but they have certainly assimilated the notion that it is the truest economy to consign old machinery to the scrap-heap. Of every new book they buy hundreds of copies, and now, after only eight months' existence, they find themselves with nearly £200,000 worth of books which they are ready to sell for £25,000. When the sale began on Tuesday, the place was immediately so crowded that the doors had to be closed for all but two or three minutes in each hour, and shut finally at four in the afternoon. Thousands of people have been, and still are acquiring shillings-worth of books for the expenditure of pence, and the sweet use of advertisement is being culled by the Times.
